JUVENILE CHARACTER BALL.

Among the merriest of the parties planned for Halloween is a juvenile character ball to be given by the Fourth Ward Primary association in the Fourth Ward Amusement Hall on Monday night. Many unique and beautiful costumes are being arranged and a large gathering of children, parents and friends is expected and desired. All are welcome.

SHAKESPEAREAN EVENING.

Tall men and pretty girls will pose as Shakespearean characters the evening of October 27th, at the Episcopal Guild hall. Some of the most noted Shakespearean songs will be given, the entire program being given under the direction of Mrs. Lillian Farnsworth. After the program a dance will be given and fine music and a well arranged program will assure an enjoyable closing of the affair.

PROGRESSIVE HIGH FIVE.

Last Saturday evening a Progressive High Five party was given by Mrs. C. E. Dodge and Mrs. A. N. Walters at the home of the latter, 117 Dorey avenue. Members of Harry A. Young Auxiliary No. 1 and friends were guests.

A delightful evening was spent, Mrs. Dodge and Mrs. Walters proving most entertaining hostesses. Following the card games delicious hot coffee, sandwiches and cake were among the good things to eat and a pleasant social hour preceded the parting "good nights" and hearty congratulations to the hostesses.

Prizes were awarded; Miss Garneau and Albert Jensen receiving first prizes, and Mrs. V. Reynolds and Ed Batchelor the consolation offering. Among those present were: Mrs. A. T. Flinders, Mr. and Mrs. Garneau, Miss Garneau, Mrs. Hendershot, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Batchelor, Mr. and Mrs. Will Batchelor, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hill, Mrs. Carrie E. Dodge, Frank Dodge, Mrs. Carrie Obyer, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Lyman, Alonzo Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wessler, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Walters, Mrs. Seth Thomas, Mrs. Ethel Thomas, Herman Purdy, Albert Jensen.

SURPRISE PARTY.

Friday evening the R. M. S. completely surprised Mrs. Thomas Bradley at her new home, 1144 Twenty-first street, the occasion being Mrs. Bradley's birthday anniversary. A happy evening was spent, social diversions of various kinds and pleasant congratulations together with appropriate birthday remembrances rounding out the nicely arranged affair.

Miss Bernice R. Kohn returned Friday from Logan, where she spent a week and today Miss Kohn returned to Logan to remain three or four weeks as the guest of Mrs. N. J. Febush.

The What-I-Can girls are making arrangements for a Halloween social to be given in the Baptist church parlors, Friday evening, October 28. A number of unique features are planned and a merry, pleasant time is assured by the well-known effort of the clever little What-I-Can girls.

The Tolstoi circle will meet next Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Walter Edwards, at her home at 2866 Washington avenue. An interesting program will be given and a full attendance is cordially urged.

The Children's Aid society met with Mrs. Wm. Craig at her home, 432 Seventeenth street, Friday afternoon when important matters and plans for future work were discussed.

MRS. TINGLEY HAS GAINED A POINT

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 22—Judge W. R. Guy in the superior court yesterday sustained the demurrer of Katherine Tingley, head of the Universal Brotherhood and Theosophical society at Point Loma, to the contest filed by George L. Patterson of Newcastle, Pa., to the will of his mother, Mrs. Harriett Patterson Thurston. Mrs. Tingley scored a victory in the first proceedings in the contest of the will of Mrs. Thurston, involving an estate valued at $350,000 and of which Mrs. Tingley was named residuary legatee. The petitioner was given 15 days in which to file an amended complaint.

The court held in effect that no sufficient cause was shown for the action brought by Patterson, who alleged undue influence on the part of Mrs. Tingley over his mother. Mrs. Thurston was the wife of Clark Thurston, a member of Mrs. Tingley's cabinet, and the mother of Mrs. Julia P. Quinn, who it was erroneously stated in a dispatch on September 29, had been released by order of court from the custody of Mrs. Tingley. Mrs. Quinn, it appears, never was in the custody of Mrs. Tingley. Dr. Dorin F. Wood, senior physician at the Point Loma homestead, testified at the hearing that according to her, Mrs. Quinn for some years prior to having been brought to California, had been in several sanitariums and it was with the hope of a possible cure, that she had placed her under his care. Mrs. Quinn was declared an incompetent in the superior court in San Diego in 1908, and her mother was appointed as guardian of her person and estate. A year later her mother married Clark Thurston. Mrs. Thurston placed her daughter under the care of Dr. Wood as a private patient and with a nurse, Mrs. Quinn occupied a place a mile from the Point Loma homestead, purchased by Mrs. Thurston, in order to have her daughter near her.

Mrs. Thurston died at Newburyport, Mass., about three months ago. Mrs. Quinn remained under the care of Dr. Wood, but was permitted to occupy the home of her mother on the ground of the homestead, leased by Mrs. Thurston, from Mrs. Tingley. At the time that Patterson, Mrs.

GOOD BILL AT THE ORPHEUM TONIGHT

Wm. FLEMEN AS HICK CLANCY "BACK TO BOSTON"

Manager Goss announces a real treat for his Orpheum patrons tonight in the presentation of the new bill for the coming week. The new program is full of ginger and snap, good comedy and new novelties, and will no doubt prove a big drawing card during the week.

Bert Kalmar and Jesse Brown, present an unusual personality, and their numbers are presented with a finesse and skill which makes their offering most attractive. In a special hanging of plush they offer a repertoire of songs and dancing novelties. Among these are "May and December," "Bugs," "At McGregors Scotch Highball," "Dinah," "That's Right—No That's Wrong."

The Bison City Four consisting of Vic Mito, Frank Girard, George Hughes and Ed. Roscoe, has long been recognized as one of the best singing quartettes in vaudeville. The difference between the Bison Four and other quartettes is that it introduces eccentric comedy in dress and action, in addition to vocal work. The characterizations include a tramp an Italian, an Irishman and a Chappie. The Jack Arlots Duo consists of a couple of gymnasts who in the guise of clowns, intermingle laughter with exceedingly clever feats on the horizontal bars. These athletes have just finished a five years' engagement during which they have appeared in England, Germany, France and Australia. They are conceded to be unequalled in their line.

FAMILY QUARREL IN POLICE COURT

Charged by his wife with having disturbed the peace, Alexander Clifton of Nye avenue appeared in Police court yesterday, told a tale of marital war, in denial of the testimony of his spouse.

Feeling that both husband and wife are to blame for the existence of the family skeletons which they so ruthlessly bare in the court, the case against Clifton was dismissed by Judge J. D. Murphy.

Mr. Clifton took the witness stand and swore that her husband had failed to support his family for the past five years and that in consequence of this, she and her seventeen-year-old daughter were compelled to work in the Utah Canning factory. Last night, according to the wife, Clifton came home drunk and began abusing her and his daughter, finally striking her in the face with his fist.

When the woman had left the stand, Clifton was called to the stand to defend himself. The man is past middle age and time has streaked his hair with gray. He appeared less vindictive than his wife in his story of their domestic strife. He stated that he had been married for twenty-five years, and that during all of this time he and his wife had more or less trouble. Clifton admitted that he had come home last night with a slight odor of booze on his breath, but denied that he was drunk.

"I sat down to read," said the man, "and my wife struck me over the head with the handle of a broom. She did this because I objected to my daughter, who is not yet 18 years of age, going to the skating rink. I did not strike back, but merely pushed her from me in self defense."

Clifton continued to tell of his hardships and of the acts of his wife and daughter until the court told him that he cared to hear no more.

"You are both to blame for the trouble," said the judge, "and if I put you in prison I suppose your wife would be here tomorrow pleading to get you out. You should be ashamed of having your family matters in the court and I don't want you to do it again."

DIVORCE FOR MABEL CUTLER

Salt Lake, Oct. 22—Thomas Edward Butler was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Mabel Blanchette Cutler Butler, daughter of former Governor John C. Cutler, in District Judge Lewis' court Friday afternoon. The grounds of the divorce were desertion. The decree was entered by default.

The divorce is a sequel to an elopement that brought members of the two families to blows. The members of the Cutler family were bitterly opposed to the match, but the young couple stole a march on them and eloped to Ogden and were married. This was June 9, 1908. A day or so later Mrs. Cutler, then governor of the state, went to the Butler home and after an altercation with young Butler that ended in blows, took his daughter home with him. The next day Butler received this curt note from his bride of a few hours:

"Sir, I will not return to you or live with you."

Governor Cutler took his daughter to California soon afterwards, intending to have her establish a residence there and bring suit for divorce, but the plan was given up.

Jesse M. Ringer told the court that after her arrival here to visit her sister, her husband wrote her a curt note from Detroit that she need not bother to return to him, as he didn't wish her back, and she was granted a divorce on the grounds of non-support.

Vilate L. Brown said that from the date of their marriage, January 9, 1909, a shiftless husband had not even provided her with clothing, and she was given divorce and the custody of the child.

Marina A. Solander said that Arthur W. Solander wasted $3,000 that she contributed to their marriage and then deserted her, going to Idaho, and she, too, was made a member of the divorce colony.

The marriage took place here July 2, 1906. Mrs. Solander has heard nothing from Solander since he left for Idaho.

Other interlocutory decrees were granted as follows:

Christine Brown from Walter M. Brown, desertion.

Little Rose from Mrs. Rose, non-support; custody of the two children and $30 a month alimony.

Caroline W. Johansen from Andrew Johansen, non-support; $8 a month alimony.

Mary Donovan was granted a final decree of divorce from Andrew J. Donovan.

Leona Pickett from Caleb A. Pickett non-support; custody of the boy.

Allowance Asked For—in the matter of the estate and guardianship of Herbert W. Hinley and two other minor children, Mrs. Emma J. Hinley, guardian and mother of the children, has petitioned the district court for an allowance from the estate of $45 a month for the support of the children.
